

Restart settings and effects in Avira Version 2012 standalone & AMC managed

Restart settings (on the left) and product update settings (on the right 2nd row)	Product update dialog was shown on client side				Restart required after product update	Automatic reboot
	Download and install product updates automatically		Download product updates. Install the update after the system restart or immediately.
	Maximized (Default)	Invisible	Maximized (Default)	Invisible
Restart the computer after 300* seconds (with count-down message, cannot be canceled)	Yes	No	No (Slide up message after update)	No	Yes	Yes, reboot happens forced after 300* seconds. Limited period to save changes.
Show reminder message	Yes	No	No (Slide up message after update)	No	Yes	No, reboot can be delayed for another 10 minutes, 1 hour or 4 hours by clicking „Later“. A reboot happens immediately when clicking „Yes“.
Query whether computer should be restarted	Yes	No	No (Slide up message after update)	No	Yes	No, reboot dialog was only shown once. The dialog can be answered with „Yes“ or „No“. There is no further inquiry for restart!
Restart computer without query	Yes	No	No (Slide up message after update)	No	Yes	Yes, reboot was initiated immediately without a delay. (changes can't be saved on time!)

* Values can be changed (default values)

 Please check before switch to Service Pack 0 for Avira Version 2012 the restart settings of you Avira Professional Security configuration to prevent unintended reboot behavior!

This document was created with great care. However, errors in design and contents cannot be excluded. The reproduction of this publication or parts thereof in any form is prohibited without previous written consent from Avira Operations GmbH & Co. KG.

Issued Q2-2012

Brand and product names are trademarks or registered trademarks of their respective owners. Protected trademarks are not marked as such in this manual. However, this does not mean that they may be used freely.

live free.™